Papa' s cheeseria game

Build delicious grilled cheese sandwiches and stack up on the fries at Papa's Cheeserial Customers can choose from a variety of breads, cheeses, toppings and sauces for their sandwiches, and you'll unlock more while you play! Create the gourmet sandwiches, cook them on the grill, and serve them with a bunch of fries. Unlock 40 brand new unique special recipes and choose one that's served every day as a Daily Special in the restaurant, which also brings you special rewards! in: Games, 2015 Games, Games With Holidays English View source Comments Share This article has been awarded the Blue Ribbon as an outstanding article! Papa Louie 3: When Sundaes Attack! Papa's Cheeseria is the eleventh game in Papa Louie's restaurant management series. The game was first announced on April 7, 2015. Rudy and Scarlett are the workers in this game since they were the winners of Papa's Next Chefs 2015. The game was officially released on June 10, 2015. Description Papa's Cheeseria opens its opening ceremony with the energy band Scarlett and the Shakers! Unfortunately, all her music equipment was stolen and the show was cancelled. All these expensive devices will replace a lot of money. It's good that you've been hired to build gigantic Grilled Cheese sandwiches in Papa's Cheeseria. Accepted orders from Dad's ever-growing legion of loyal customers. Stack the sandwiches at Build Station with a dizzying selection of breads, toppings and, of course... Cheese! Cook the grilled cheese to perfection at the GrillStation. Do you want fries with it? Of course! So cook these fries quickly at Fry Station. Stack the fries next to the grilled cheese on the plate, top up the fries with toppings and send the finished order to your patiently waiting customer. New in the series are the unique special recipes. Once earned, you can use them for Daily Specials that your customers can order. Earn bonus rewards for serving specials and mastering each of the 40 special recipes! Announcement Big-big-BIG News today everyone!! As Dad's Next Chefs rolls through the semifinals, we wanted to unveil Dad's next big restaurant.... Papa's Cheeseria!!! In this latest addition to the Papa franchise you will grill the toasty-est... gooey-est... melty-est... cheesy-est... Grilled cheese sandwiches in the world! These will be some really monster grilled cheese sandwiches, with tons of toppings, bread, and of course.... CHEESE! And what do you know... April is National Grilled Cheese Month!!! So we'll spend this month giving you weekly insights into all the fun you'll have in Papa's Cheeseria! [1] Introducing Dad's Cheeseria is about to open, and Scarlett and the Shakers will be (with the Custom Worker as guest star). Scarlett/Rudy/Custom Worker travels to Toastwood to prepare for the big show. Shortly after a conversation with Papa Louie in the restaurant restaurant discovered that all instruments were stolen! Scarlett/Rudy/Custom Worker is now bummed as new instruments cost a lot of money. Suddenly Papa Louie offers a solution in the form of working in the Cheeseria to get money. Without any other choice, he/she decides that it is time to get to work. Final the final sequence for this game is rank 65. Hank arrests the thief (Guy Mortadello) who stole the music equipment, then Papa Louie Rudy/Scarlett/Custom Worker shows that the music equipment is back, so they are hosting a live concert. If one or two custom employees/servers are used, they will also play at the concert. The first custom worker will play the saxophone, while the second will play the maracas. Worker Rudy Scarlett Custom Worker New features In the clothing store, players can now choose the color of a particular clothing pattern, and all goods are sorted by holidays. Customers sometimes bring gold envelopes with special recipes. The clothing store will now contain 3,554 garments, more than ten times the number of garments in Papa's Donuteria. Per Matt, this number contains all color options, so red striped pants and blue striped pants are counted as two things as they appear as two separate items in the player's inventory. [2] Players can now skip the training session that takes place at the beginning of the game. Preview 04/07/2015: Soon: Papa's Cheeseria!!!! [3] 14.04.2015: Sneak Peek: Clothing Bonanza! [16] Today's Special (From Filpline Studios' blog [17]) For Papa's Cheeseria, we wanted to introduce something completely new to the series that would bring even more fun and excitement to every working day. While working at Cheeseria, sometimes a customer comes to the restaurant with a special golden envelope in hand. These customers with envelopes have a brand new item called A Special Recipe That You Can Earn! You will be more picky about grading their order (like a closer), but if you do a good job on their food, they will open the golden envelope and present you with a new special recipe card! Every day you can choose what Today's Special will be in the Cheeseria, and you can choose one of the specials you have unlocked to make the special for this to be. You will be able to earn many more special recipes as you play through the game, all of which go into a new cookbook where you can browse through all the specials you have earned so far. If you click on one of your specials, you can see all the ingredients to make the special. You can also see a point marked with bonus – that's right, you can earn a bonus for proper service of a special! Each special has a different bonus that you can earn by serving, so you might want to make the Bird Buster Today's Special if you want to earn more mini-game tickets, and other specials have different bonuses for things like tips, points and customer stars. The cookbook also has a section to see the ingredients you have unlocked! If you choose one of your specials as a Today special, customers can choose to order the special instead of their usual order (especially if it has some of their favorite ingredients). If you build the order well, you will earn the bonus from Today's Special and also earn a star on the special to serve it properly. If you earn five Special Stars, you will master this special and it will be marked with a star symbol in your cookbook. You might even deserve a surprise for mastering a special! This new addition to Today's Special will give players an extra layer of challenge and fun in addition to classic Gamera gameplay, with some great rewards for serving specials. We have an explosion of specials as we build and test parts of the game, and can't wait for everyone to try them out! Stations Order Grill Station Fry Station customers The days when a player unlocks new customers (those that aren't unlocked when they reach a new rank) and the order of when they're available depend on how well you perform throughout the game. There are really no set days when some of the characters are unlocked, but their order should be correct. This and Dad's Cheeseria To Go! are both the eleventh game of their kind. Added a skip training program button that allows players to skip the tutorial that takes place on the first day. Eight customers eventually visit each day when the player reaches rank 26. All customers order their sandwiches upside down due to the flipping process during the grill ingesum. When the player reaches 8 customers (the average), there are three customers who prefer the current holiday, two customers who are not gold customers (their favorite holiday could be the current holiday or not), two customers who when the sign for today is especially outside, and the closer they get. This is the first game with a worker who was closer (Rudy). This is the last Web Gamera to use the Doko font. Trivia (Ingredients & Recipes) players have access to a cookbook that provides all available ingredients (113) and all for today's special sandwiches (40). All special recipes are cooked to orange (regularly) and not well done or lightly cooked. People with golden envelopes have golden names (the next time they come, they won't). After the player has received all 40 special recipes, no customers come with envelopes. When the player puts fries in the fryer, the color of the fryer handle changes to one of the colors of the lids in Wingeria or Wingeria HD (French fries - turquoise, curly fries - purple, waffle fries - blue, sweet potato wedges - pink, crinkle cut fries - olive green). Since the holiday ingredients are unlocked, standard ingredients can only be unlocked if the rank number ends in a 3, 4, 5, 8, 9 or 0. Trivia (customer) Papa's Cheeseria - Jumping two ranks at once Jumping two ranks at once Kahuna is the first customer to order a well-made sandwich. Cooper is the first customer to order a lightly cooked sandwich. Mindy may be the last customer as she is the last time she is unlocked. This happens when the player ascends too quickly with a special. A maximum of 750 points can be earned by serving the health mother to a 4-star customer. With the Health Nut Special it is possible to jump over a rank (example: go directly from 23 to 25), but it will say the rank before it with 0 points left. You can earn a maximum of 48.00 dollars by serving the Gorgonzilla to a 4-star customer, and with a full lobby with only fresh furniture and a poster dedicated to each of the ingredients in the Gorgonzilla. All closers order their sandwiches regularly (except jojo, who can either order his sandwich light or regular). This game has 7832 possible pairs in the dining room (89 normal customers * 88 because the customer cannot be repeated). According to Vicky, no random customers will be unlocked until the player unlocks Perri during Thanksgiving. In the dining room, customers can drink a random drink from Dad's Hot Doggeria, even if it's not what they ordered in this game. All drinks in this game are great. Bertha is the only customer who orders all seasonal toppings on her favorite holiday. All customers who are activated with a holiday order the bread from this holiday. This is the first game in which Skyler does not prefer St. Paddy's Day, even though it is in play. Trivia (holiday) Everyone will wear costumes for Halloween: during the Portallini festival at the beginning of the day, it seems as if Deano is rowing down a gondola down a river when he is really driving a gondola car on a painted road. If Deano is the first customer, Nick will replace Deano and row the gondola. Before the player unlocks the holiday, Cletus can be seen in his Easter outfit at the beginning of the day. The Toastwood Trading Post (next to the Cheeseria) has based on the holiday. At Easter, 13 Easter eggs are hidden on the outside of the Cheeseria, 3 more can be found where the parade takes place. Toastwood celebrates the Anniversary celebration with a festival called Starlight BBQ. Because Toastwood is a desert region and there are no trees, artificial autumn leaves are scattered on the city's paths during Thanksgiving. Continuity This is the first gamera since Papas Wingeria in which a hat or other headdress is not part of the standard worker's uniform. This is the second Gamera in which Papa Louie is unlocked with an ingredient, the first is Papa's Cupcakeria. Gallery Papa's Cheeseria revealed! Welcome to Toastwood, home of Papa's CheeseriaNew Holiday: Cinco de Mayo! Holiday Ingredient: TortillaAnother error: If you are unable to place an item on the sandwich in Build StationAnother error: Notice Lisa's Arma error in Papa's Cheeseria, where Rita appears twice! Part of the last glitch. You miss your order when you go to the fries station. But you can still put the fries on the plate. If you throw away the fries and click on the garbage bin and put it back in the fryer, it jumps off and stays with the garbage express.
